Subject: A resource to help you support your team

Hi [Manager Name],

We offer DailyPay, a financial wellness benefit¹ that helps our employees better manage their money, access their pay before payday², and get no-cost financial tools. Teams that use DailyPay see better shift coverage, more accurate clock ins/outs, higher engagement, and lower turnover.

We're excited to share your DailyPay for Managers page, which includes everything you need to know about the benefit including talking points, FAQs, resources, and a sign up referral link to send to your employees. We encourage you to get familiar with the benefits and resources on this page so you can share with your team. Start making an impact on productivity, compliance, and satisfaction today!
